eign relations committee reservation to article 10 of the league of nations covenant stood today in the menate as a part of the part in face of President Wilson's guage differ from the proposed reserved out of the covenant.

The reservation was adopted late year to regard as a rejection. As read by article 10 of the league of nations roveof the pact in face of President Wilson's declaration that it would cut the heart out of the covenant.

The reservation was adopted late yesterday by a vote of 45 to 23 in the exact form in which it came from the committee. Four Democrats Joined with the Republicans in voting to adopt the reservation, while the opposition was composed entirely of Democrats.

The senate was in adjournment today on account of the foreral of Senator Martin at Charlottesville, Va. but to morrow a vote will be called on the proposal presented by Republican Leader Lodge to invoke the cloture rule to limit debate on the whole treaty subject.

The reservation to article 10 provides that the United States shall assume no obligations to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations.

A solid Republican lineup, reinforced by four Democrate votes, put the reservation across exactly as it came from the foreign relations committee, and in virtually the same language which the president declared on his Western tour world out the heart out of the covenant and mean the rejection of the treaty or political independence of any other country or to interfere with court ready. cipal of Crane Technical high school and college, in discussing supersion of two seniors of that institution. The youths, Alfred Struve, son of a naturalized German, and Jacob Sacks, whose father is a naturalized Russian, refused to observe the minute silence in honor of soldier dead on Armistice day.

"The statements of both students convince me that they have been tutored by radical leaders." Dr. Barthoff said. "They declared they acknowledged no government, would not stand for the national anthem and professed religious beliefs that are astounding. "Even the faculty of some schools is contaminated by the work of these radicals."
